

SSMRF 2020 Research Grants

Guidelines for Applicants by Expression of Interest (EOI)

The St George & Sutherland Medical Research Foundation (SSMRF) is delighted to announce a new round of research grants for 2020. These grants will be open to researchers based at either St George or Sutherland Hospitals including scientific, medical, nursing/midwifery and allied health staff.

A. Background

The SSMRF was established in 2007 with the aim of promoting and funding medical research at St George & Sutherland Hospitals.

B. Specific Objectives of SSMRF Grants

To foster, strengthen and grow teams of quality researchers who will:

- Fulfil the SSMRF's overall objectives
- Undertake research that is scientific in nature, in medical or health related fields and is, or may prove to be, of value to Australia.
- Be in a position to secure external Category I grant funding to further their work.

C. Amounts and duration of funding

There is a maximum of $200,000 available for the 2020 round of grants and it is envisaged that 4 – 6 grants of between $20,000 - $50,000 will be awarded for a 12-month period.

D. Process of Application

The process for applications will involve an expression of interest (EOI). The EOI will be limited to a maximum of 2 A4 pages plus an abbreviated 2-page CV (biosketch) for each investigator, which includes grant history, most important publications of the last 5 years and details of any existing funding for the project.

Applicants who wish to discuss their plans should email the Chair of the SSMRF Research Committee, Professor Michael Grimm (m.grimm@unsw.edu.au).

Following review of all EOIs by the SSMRF's Research Committee, competitive EOI's will be invited to submit a full application. The review process of the full applications will be undertaken by a minimum of two reviewers at least one of whom will be external to St George and Sutherland Hospitals. The SSMRF's Research Committee will make their recommendations based on the reviewers' assessments. All grant awards are subject to the SSMRF Board's approval.

E. Ineligibility criteria

This 2020 round of grants is not open to CIAs of current SSMRF Microbiome Research Centre Grants and recipients of SSMRF Capacity Building Grants.
